SUBJECT: MINOR PARENT REQUIREMENT (TEEN PREGNANCY DISINCENTIVE)
FOR THE AID TO FAMILIES WITH DEPENDENT CHILDREN (AFDC)
PROGRAM

REFERENCE: ACIN I-57-96, ASSEMBLY BILL (AB) 908, Chapter 307, Statutes of 1995

The purpose of this letter is to provide County Welfare Departments (CWDs) with emergency regulations, implementation instructions, forms, Notices of Action (NOAs) and informing language necessary to implement provisions of AB 908. The attached emergency regulations, which have an effective date of March 1, 1997, require never-married pregnant or parenting minors under 18 years of age to live with a parent, legal guardian, other adult relative, or in an adult-supervised supportive living arrangement as a condition of AFDC eligibility (Attachment 1). AB 908 also contains provisions specific to Child Welfare Services (CWS). The Children and Family Services Division will issue a separate All County Letter with implementation instructions.

MINOR PARENT REQUIREMENT

AB 908 added a new Welfare and Institutions Code Section 11254 which creates a new condition of AFDC eligibility for certain minors, unless the minor meets a specified exemption. AB 908 also requires that, where possible, the CWDs must make the AFDC payment to the adult living in the same home with the minor parent. In addition, the new law prohibits deeming income from the senior parent to the minor parent's child when determining the eligibility and aid payment of the minor parent's child.

IMPLEMENTATION INSTRUCTIONS

(1) Eligibility/Exemptions

Effective March 1, 1997, a pregnant or parenting minor, who has never been married and applies for AFDC, must meet a new condition of eligibility. The minor must live with his/her senior parent, legal guardian, other adult relative, or in an adult-supervised supportive living arrangement. The minor is exempt when he/she meets one of the following conditions:

- The minor has no parent or legal guardian: who is living, whose whereabouts is known, or who will allow the minor to live in his/her home; or
- A Child Protective Services (CPS) social worker determines that the physical or emotional health or safety of the minor parent and his/her dependent child would be jeopardized if the minor and child lived in the home with the senior parent or legal guardian; or
- The minor has lived apart from the senior parent or legal guardian for a period of at least twelve months prior to the birth of the dependent child or the application for aid; or
- The minor is legally emancipated.

For those pregnant or parenting minors who are receiving AFDC on March 1, 1997, the minor parent requirement is to be applied no later than the next redetermination. Both existing and applicant pregnant or parenting minors with verified exemptions, who receive AFDC while living on their own, must be referred to Child Welfare Services (CWS) for minor parent family maintenance (MPFM) services.

(2) Senior Parent Deeming/Treatment of Income

Under AB 908 the senior parent's income cannot be counted when determining the eligibility and aid payment for the minor parent's child. Therefore, a minor parent who lives with his/her senior parent and who is included in the AU will have the AFDC aid payment based on the greater of (1) the aid payment calculated using existing income and computation rules, or (2) the amount equal to the Maximum Aid Payment (MAP) for the minor parent's child(ren). This happens whether the senior parent is aided with the minor parent or the senior parent's income is being deemed to the minor parent's AU.

When senior parent deeming results in the ineligibility of the minor parent's AU, only the minor parent is taken out of the AU. In this situation, the minor parent is not eligible for Cal-Learn. Senior parent income shall not be deemed to the minor parent's child; however, any income the minor parent has will be deemed to the new AU using the excluded parent formula, pursuant to Manual of Policies and Procedures (MPP) Section 44-133.33.

FORMS/INFORMING STUFFER

(1) Supplemental Statement of Facts - Minor Parent (CA 25) Attachment 2

This form has been developed for CWDs to use to:

- Document the minor parent's current living arrangement;
- Refer the minor parent to CWS when the physical or emotional health or safety of the minor parent or child is an issue;
- Refer the minor parent to CWS for MPFM services if the minor parent meets an exemption and lives apart from his/her parent, legal guardian or other adult relative.

All pregnant and parenting minor applicants will be required to complete the CA 25 at the time of application. Those pregnant and parenting minors receiving AFDC and living on their own at the time of implementation must complete the CA 25 no later than the next redetermination.

The CA 25 should only be sent to CWS once during the application/redetermination process. When the minor alleges a health or safety factor prevents his/her living with the senior parent or legal guardian, the eligibility worker should send the CA 25 to CWS when the minor is determined to be apparently eligible for AFDC. After the completion of the CPS investigation, the CWS social worker is responsible for sending the eligibility worker a copy of the CA 25 verifying the results of the investigation. The CWS social worker will forward the CA 25 to the MPFM services worker if the minor is determined to meet the health and safety exemption. When the eligibility worker determines that a minor meets one of the other exemptions, the CA 25 should be referred to CWS after AFDC eligibility is established. When the eligibility worker determines that the minor is not eligible for AFDC, CWS should be notified of the denial or discontinuance so the MPFM case can be closed.

If the minor does not meet one of the exemptions and is not living in an acceptable living arrangement, the minor is not eligible for AFDC unless he/she moves into one of the acceptable living arrangements. If the minor moves out of an acceptable living arrangement, the eligibility worker must determine if the minor still meets the minor parent requirement by the completion of a new CA 25.

(2) Payee Agreement for Minor Parent (CA 25A) Attachment 3

This form will be used to obtain the adult's consent or refusal to act as the minor's payee. It also informs the potential adult payee of the purpose of the AFDC aid payment and the payee's responsibilities. If the adult refuses to act as payee, the minor parent may become the payee. The CA 25A must be completed by each minor applicant and the adult living in the home at the time of application and returned to the CWD in order for the minor to be eligible.

Those pregnant or parenting minors who receive AFDC and reside in an acceptable living arrangement at the time the minor parent requirement is implemented must have the adult with whom they are living complete the CA 25A no later than the next redetermination. If the minor parent refuses or fails to cooperate in obtaining the completed CA 25A, the minor parent's AU is ineligible and benefits are denied or terminated.

(3) Informing Stuffer (Attachment 4)

The attached informing stuffer (Temp 2125) has been developed for counties to distribute to all AFDC recipients prior to the March 1, 1997, implementation date.

(4) Notices of Action (Attachment 5)

Attachment 5A contains six new NOAs to deny or discontinue aid to pregnant or parenting minors who do not meet the minor parent requirement and to change and partially approve cash aid due to senior parent deeming. Attachment 5B includes existing NOAs being modified to reflect associated changes related to this package. Attachment 5C updates the AFDC NOA Handbook.

(5) Translations/Stock

Camera-ready copies of the CA 25 and CA 25A in English and Spanish may be obtained through the Forms Management Unit. Camera-ready copies of these forms in Cambodian, Chinese and Vietnamese may be obtained through the Language Services Bureau upon request at a later date. Translations of the NOA messages in Cambodian, Chinese, Vietnamese and Spanish may also be obtained through the Language Services Bureau by January 1, 1997.

Stock of the CA 25 and CA 25A may be ordered from the California Department of Social Services (CDSS) warehouse upon receipt of the Notice of Change Forms (GEN 127), which are issued when stock is available.

The individual's refusal to act as payee.

.434

The minor parent's refusal or failure to cooperate in obtaining verification of the adult's consent or refusal to act as payee.

HANDBOOK BEGINS HERE

.44 Example 1:

A minor parent applies for AFDC for herself and her dependent child. The minor states her parents are divorced and living at different residences. The minor states that her mother forced her and her child out of the home and will not allow them to return. Further, the minor states that she has not lived with her father (the other senior parent) for over twelve months.

The minor provides a statement from her mother that the minor had been living with her for the past two years, but that she will no longer allow the minor and child to live with her. Since the minor meets the exemption for each senior parent, the county will: (1) not apply the Minor Parent Requirement, and (2) grant aid to the minor parent and/or her child if they are otherwise eligible, and (3) refer the case to CWS for Minor Parent Family Maintenance services.

.45 Example 2:

A minor parent applies for AFDC for herself and her dependent child. The minor parent states that she has been living with a friend for the past three months.

The minor parent states that her mother forced her to move out of the home and will not allow her to return. The minor's friend told her that she needs to find another place to live by the end of the month.

The minor parent is unable to obtain a statement from her mother confirming that she is not allowed to return to the parent's home. In a collateral call to the minor parent's mother, the mother indicates that her daughter ran away from home three months ago and refuses to return. The mother indicates that she is willing to allow the minor parent and her dependent child to live with her. The minor parent then states that she fears for her safety and the safety of her dependent child if she returns to her mother's home. A child protective services worker completes an evaluation of the mother's home and determines that there would be no risk to either the minor parent or her dependent child if they were to live with the minor's mother.

Since the minor parent does not meet any of the exemption criteria, she and her dependent child must live with her parent, legal guardian, or other adult relative to be eligible for AFDC. The minor parent refuses to return to her mother's home and no other adult relative will allow her to live with him/her. The minor parent and child are not eligible for AFDC and the application is denied.

.5 Senior Parent Deeming

When the minor parent lives with his/her parent(s), Senior parent deeming, pursuant to Section 44-133.7, shall apply.

.51 Ineligible Minor

When senior parent deeming, pursuant to Section 44-133.7, results in ineligibility of the minor's AU:

.511

The minor parent shall be ineligible and excluded from the AU.

.512

Senior parent income shall not be deemed to the minor parent's child(ren).

.512

The income eligibility of the minor parent's child(ren) shall be determined pursuant to Sections 44-207.2 and .3.

.513

The minor parent's income shall be deemed to the child(ren)'s AU using the excluded parent computation, pursuant to Section 44-133.33.

HANDBOOK BEGINS HERE

.52 Example:

Senior parent with one child. $2000 earned income.
Minor parent with baby. Minor receives $350 Survivor's Benefits.

The AU is Non-Exempt.

Step 1: Apply senior parent deeming rule:

$1319 Senior parent contribution
+ 350 Minor parent income
$1669 = AU's total income

$1669 > $1095* (185% MBSAC for 2) AU fails
185% test.

$1669 > $ 592* (MBSAC for 2) AU fails
financial eligibility test.

Step 2: Since minor is ineligible based on excess senior parent income, determine whether minor's baby is eligible using minor's income.

Exclude the minor parent from the AU. Establish new Non-Exempt AU for one (minor's baby).

Determine minor parent's baby's eligibility based on minor parent's and her baby's income. Minor has $350 unearned income.

$592* MBSAC for 2
-361* MBSAC for 1
$231 MBSAC Differential

$350 Net Income
-231 MBSAC Differential
$119 Income to Assistance Unit

$119 < $667* (185% MBSAC for 1 - minor's baby)

$119 < $361* (MBSAC for 1 - minor's baby)

AU passes income eligibility tests.

Step 3: Calculate the minor's baby's grant using the excluded parent computation to determine AU's grant.

$361*	MBSAC for 1
-119	Income to Assistance Unit
$242	Potential Grant Amount

$ 293*	MAP for 1 (Non-Exempt)
> 242	Potential Grant Amount
$ 242	GRANT AMOUNT (Lesser of MAP for minor's child(ren) or potential grant amount)

*The MBSAC and MAP amounts are subject to change. The MAP amounts assumes that both the senior and minor parents are eligible for the Non-Exempt MAP amounts. See Handbook Section 44-315.311 for currently applicable amounts.

HANDBOOK ENDS HERE

.53 Eligible Minor

When senior parent deeming, pursuant to Section 44-133.7, does not result in ineligibility of the minor parent's AU:

.531

The minor parent shall be eligible to be included in the AU, and

.532

Senior parent deeming shall apply and the AU's grant amount shall be the greater of:

(a)

The actual grant amount calculated pursuant to Section 44-315.3, or

(b)

The MAP for the minor parent's children.

HANDBOOK BEGINS HERE

.54 Example:

Senior Parent Unit consists of two senior parents and one child (the parents and a sibling of the minor).

AFDC assistance unit (AU) consists of a minor and one aided child. The AU is Non-Exempt.

One senior parent earns $900 within the month from full-time employment. The other senior parent earns $400 within the month from part-time employment.

No payments are made by the senior parents to persons living outside the home.

Step 1: Apply senior parent deeming rule:

$900	Gross income of 1st senior parent
- 90	Less work expense disregard
$810	Net Income

$400	Gross income of 2nd senior parent
- 90	Less work expense disregard
$310	Net Income

$1120	Net income of both senior parents
- 735*	Less MBSAC for Senior Parent Unit (3 persons)
$ 385	Senior parent's income to AU

$592*	MBSAC for AU of 2 (minor and child)
-385	Less senior parents' income to AU
$207	Potential grant (Note: minor is eligible and must be included in AU)

Step 2: If the minor is eligible, determine minor's grant amount by comparing potential grant with MAP for minor's child.

$293*	MAP for 1 (Non-Exempt)
$207	Potential Grant

$293	GRANT AMOUNT (Greater of potential grant or MAP for minor's child)
-------	---

*The MBSAC and MAP amounts are subject to change. The MAP amounts assumes that both the senior and minor parents are eligible for the Non-Exempt MAP amounts. See Handbook Section 44-315.311 for currently applicable amounts.

.64 Minor Meets
Exemption

A minor who does not reside with a senior parent shall have his/her aid payment calculated based on existing income regulations.

SUPPLEMENTAL STATEMENT OF FACTS - MINOR PARENT

The Minor Parent Rule says you can get cash aid if you are under 18 years of age and have never been married and are pregnant or have a dependent child in your care, only if you and your child live with your parent(s), legal guardian, other adult relative, in a group home, or in a maternity home. Your cash aid will be paid to that adult.

The Minor Parent Rule may not apply if you meet one of the following conditions:

- 1) A child protective services worker determines that it's not physically or emotionally safe for you to live with your parent(s) or legal guardian; or
- 2) Your parent(s) or legal guardian is dead; or you don't know where they live; or they won't let you live with them; or

- 3) You have lived apart from your parent(s) or legal guardian for at least one year before the birth of your child or application for cash aid; or
- 4) You are legally emancipated.

If you are living apart from your parent(s) or legal guardian, and one of the above-listed conditions apply, your case will be referred for minor parent family maintenance services.

NEW CASH AID RULE FOR PREGNANT OR PARENTING MINORS

STARTING MARCH 1, 1997, IF PREGNANT OR PARENTING MINORS MOVE OUT OF THEIR FAMILY'S HOME, THEY WILL NOT BE ABLE TO GET CASH AID.

Pregnant or parenting minors can only get cash aid if they are living with their parent(s), legal guardian, adult relative, in a group home or in a maternity home.

There are exemptions to this new rule. A minor not living in his or her family's home may be able to get cash aid only if they meet an exemption, such as:

- No parent or legal guardian will let the minor live with them.
- Minor does not know where the parent(s) or legal guardian is living.
- It would be unsafe for the minor and child to live with the parent, legal guardian or adult relative.
- No parent or legal guardian is living.

If your living arrangements change, your eligibility for cash aid, food stamps and Medi-Cal may change. If you need more information, contact your worker.

MESSAGE:

As of _____, the County is changing your cash aid from $_____ to $_____. Cash aid is being stopped for _____.

Here's why:

You can not get cash aid if your monthly gross income is more than 185% of the need standard set by the state.

When you are pregnant or a parent and under age 18 living with your parent, some of your parent's income is counted to figure your cash aid. When we count part of their income, your total income is over the limit.

Since we do not count your parent's income to your child, he/she is still eligible for cash aid.

We figured how much of your parent's income
we use on the next page.

The new cash aid is figured on this page.

INSTRUCTIONS: Use to change the amount of aid in minor parent cases when the deemed senior parent income causes the minor parent's income to exceed 185% and results in the minor parent only receiving MAP for the baby.

Use NA 271 (1/96) as a second page.

MESSAGE:

As of _____, the County is changing your cash aid from $_____ to $_____.

Here's why:

Your parent's income has changed.

When you are pregnant or a parent and under
age 18 living with your parent, some of your parent's income is counted to figure your cash aid. When their income changes, your income also changes.

We figured how much of your parent's income
we use on the next page.

Your new cash aid is figured on this page.

INSTRUCTIONS: Use to change the amount of aid in minor parent cases when a change in the deemed senior parent income causes the minor parent's income to change.

Use NA 271 (1/96) as a second page.
